

Silver, 60 1/2.
Lead, $4.25.
Copper, 18 1/2.

PROSECUTED BY HOBBS KILLED BY HOBBS

William Strong Murdered
Early This Morning.

SHOT THROUGH HEART
BY TRAMP PRISONER

Much Mystery Shrouds the Whole Affair.

Believed That Strong Had Arrested
Some Hoboes at the Rio Grande Western Depot and Was Taking Them to Jail When the Tragedy Occurred—Only One Shot Fired, and the Bullet Killed Instantly—Search For Murderer.

(By Telephone to The Herald.) Provo, June 27.—William Strong, a special officer, was murdered in Provo about 12:10 o'clock this morning. He was shot through the heart and expired instantly.

It is supposed that one of the hoboes with whom the city has been overrun for a week or ten days just did the deed. A Rio Grande Western train came in about midnight from the east and it is surmised that Strong arrested one or more tramps who arrived on this train and was taking them up town to the jail when a scuffle ensued and the shooting followed.

Only one shot was fired. It was heard distinctly by an officer at the First National bank corner who also heard a man scream out "Oh."

The officer mounted his wheel and raced to the scene of the shooting where he found Strong lying prone on the ground dead. There was no one in view. The murderer had already disappeared. Near Strong lay the revolver with which the murder was committed. The alarm was given immediately and a large force of officers and volunteers began scouring the city and suburbs for the murderer.

The news was sent to nearby towns and it is hoped the assassin will be apprehended.

At 3 o'clock this morning no clue to the murderer had been obtained, but the conviction that a hobo did the killing had become a certainty in the mind of the officers. It had been definitely learned that two or three hoboes got off the freight train at Provo, and duty at the depot, and in pursuance of the general orders to pick up all of that class, it was concluded he had arrested the freight's hobo passengers and from one of the number received his mortal wound.

The deceased officer was one of the best known police officers in the state.
For twenty years nearly he has served as a policeman in Provo, part of the time as city marshal. He was at various times a deputy sheriff of Utah county, and his reputation has always been that of an efficient courageous peace officer.

He leaves a large family of grown sons and daughters, and many near relatives living at Provo and Alpine and Salt Lake City.

COUNCIL OF WOMEN.

Countess of Aberdeen Addresses Delegates at London.

London, June 26.—The international council of women opened today. The Countess of Aberdeen, president of the council, in her address, after cordial words of welcome, sketched the duties of the council. She said international arbitration should be placed foremost in its programme, advocated the establishment of an international tribunal of arbitration, and urged the exchange of information regarding all that affects women, and warned women against regarding to themselves alone the duties of their sex.

It may be well to have unions of mothers, but do the fathers count so little in the home that their council is not needed? It is the duty of women to be mothers, and to be mothers is not only to be compassed by men and women joining hands and making common cause in every department of life.

In conclusion the Countess of Aberdeen deprecated the idea usually formed about women's congresses, that they are a series of meetings where women might be emancipated from home duties, saying:

"This congress holds fast to the belief that woman's first mission must be her home."

Mrs. Sewall Speaks.

Lady Aberdeen afterwards introduced Mrs. May Wright Sewall of the United States, vice president of the council, who was enthusiastically received as a new accession to the presidency.

A delegation of American women was introduced and afterwards Lady Aberdeen presented representatives of the council of women of the United States.
The Countess of Aberdeen, who subsequently presided at the council, was presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

The Countess of Aberdeen, who subse-
quently presided at the council, was
presented by the Countess of Aberdeen.

business manager of the Evening Telegraph, was found dead yesterday near Oak Point, seventy-five miles from Salt Lake City, on a fishing trip. His death was probably due to hemorrhage of the lungs. From 1883 to 1887 Mr. Mc-Kinley was cashier in the St. Paul Globe, and from 1888 to 1892 he occupied a similar position on the Nashville Banner.

Transfer of Troops.

Washington, June 26.—Orders have been issued at the war department for the sending of one troop of the Sixth cavalry at Fort Riley, Kan., to Boise barracks, Idaho, and another troop of the same regiment from Fort Riley to Fort Walla Walla, Wash. These troops take the places of those transferred to duty in the Philippines.

UP AGAINST NEW YORK "COPS"

SALT LAKE MAN ROUGHLY HANDLED IN METROPOLIS.

Had a Complaint to Make to Policemen and Received a Clubbing For His Pains.

(Special to The Herald.)
New York, June 26.—A burly fellow of Salt Lake, who had been roughly treated by a policeman, he said that he boarded what he thought was a southbound train at One Hundred and Forty-fifth street. When the train got to One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, the end of the line, he was ordered out of the train he had taken by mistake.

He explained the mistake and asked to be allowed to ride down town on the return of the train, but he claims he was hurried out to the station platform and ordered to buy another ticket. He appealed to a policeman, who, he alleges, drew his club and beat him across the back and legs and hustled him down stairs. There he met another policeman who, he claims, treated him as roughly as the other.

Burley was told to make his complaint to the inspector of the district where the clubbing occurred.

START AFTER BANDITS AGAIN

SHERIFF AND POSSE LEAVE ROCK CREEK, WYO.

Believe That the Train Robbers Are Headed For Robbers' Roost—Will Intercept Them.

(Special to The Herald.)
Rock Creek, Wyo., June 26.—Sheriff Yund of Albany county and a posse left here with camping outfit for the purpose of intercepting the Wilcox train robbers, who are believed to be coming south. Sheriff Yund is of the opinion that the robbers are trying to reach the "Robbers' Roost" country in Brown's park. They are not thought to be showing up at ranches, but are trying to get to the "Robbers' Roost."

Sheriff Yund has a posse of six well armed and determined men, and should the robbers be met they are likely to meet their fate.

SHOOTING AT THE PRESIDIO.

Unprovoked Assault By Private of Twenty-fourth Infantry.

San Francisco, June 26.—Private Wesley Kirby of company H, Twenty-fourth infantry, was shot through the leg by Private Frank Wigfall of the same company at their headquarters at the presidio. The wound is serious, and it may be necessary to amputate the limb.

Eye-witnesses state that the shooting was entirely unprovoked. Kirby was backing his shoes when Wigfall loaded his rifle and fired. Seeing that the shot had not been fatal, he was about to leave when he was taken away from him by other soldiers, who hustled him to the guard house. No charge is as yet filed for his attempt to commit murder.

ON TRIAL FOR WIFE MURDER.

His Sweetheart Will Furnish Money
For His Defense.

Chicago, June 26.—Albert August Becker, the sausage-maker, accused of murdering his wife and burning her body, was placed on trial today.

Ida Sutterlin, the girl for love of whom Becker is said to have committed the murder, and who became his wife immediately after the late Mrs. Becker's disappearance, appeared in court with Becker's attorneys, and declares she will use in the sausage-maker's defense the money she has earned by recent dime museum exhibitions.

Twelve Years For Kidnaping.

New York, June 26.—George B.
Barrow, when arraigned before Justice Walker in the criminal branch of the supreme court today, pleaded guilty to the charge of kidnaping baby Marion Clark, she was sentenced to twelve years in prison.

Gerald Lapiner's Kidnapers.

Chicago, June 26.—John Collins and Mrs.
Ann Ingalls of Painesville, O., were placed on trial before Judge Waterman today on the charge of having kidnaped Gerald Lapiner, the child of a wealthy man, to have a case strong enough to warrant heavy punishment in Illinois for the extreme penalty for the crime is life imprisonment.

Negro Fined Located.

Birmingham, Ala., June 26.—John Sheppard, who assaulted Mrs. Jones, has just been located near Cardiff. The sheriff of Jefferson and Walker counties have posses there. There are 500 armed negroes protecting the man. Poses are being organized and are threatening to lynch the negro if he is captured.
Trouble is imminent.

Divided For Montana Bank.

Washington, June 26.—The controller of the currency has declared a dividend of 5 per cent in favor of the creditors of the insolvent Merchants National bank of Helena, Mont.

Killed By a Street Car.

Vancouver, B. C., June 26.—A. R. Hill, an old resident of this city, was run over and killed by a street car today.
Hill, who was a common laborer, claimed to be the heir of Lord Armstrong, the famous gunmaker, but the peerage list gives no help to Armstrong.

Discharged For Desertion.

(Special to The Herald.)
Washington, D. C., June 26.—By direction of the assistant secretary of war, Private John J. Connors, troop E, First United States cavalry, now in confinement at Fort Washakie, is ordered discharged without honor, for desertion.

UPROARIOUS SCENES AT KENTUCKY CONVENTION

Uproarious Scenes at Kentucky Convention.

ANGERED BY THE
RULING OF CHAIR

Delegates Resolve Themselves Into Frenzied Disorderly Body.

In Order to Prevent Roll Call For Nominations, They Sing Sacred, Patriotic and Popular Songs—Presence of Policemen in Hall Nearly Precipitates a Riot—Fillusters Were Finally Outwitted, But No Business Transacted.

Louisville, Ky., June 26.—A continuous performance of farce-comedy, lasting eight hours; a rare vocal entertainment, with soloists and a chorus of several hundred voices; declamations and tin-horn tests of lung power, made up the program of the sixth day of the Democratic state convention, and the narrowly escaped winding up in an exhibition of pugilism and gun fighting.

From 10 o'clock until 6 today, Central Music hall contained, without doubt, the most uproarious and disorderly body of men that ever gathered for the transaction of political or other business. Angered by what they considered an arbitrary ruling of the chairman in refusing to allow an appeal from his decision declaring out of order a motion to remove policemen from the hall, the delegates set about with all the energy they could muster to prevent by sheer force of lung power the transaction of any further business until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

This plan was successfully carried out until nearly 6 o'clock this evening.
When, principally because of utter physical exhaustion, the filusters allowed themselves to be outwitted, and the vote on nomination for governor which the President had ordered early in the morning, and had tried repeatedly to proceed with, was concluded by having the county chairmen, or as many as could be found, stand at the head of the table and, at a distance of a few inches, was able to catch the figures.

Filusters Were Outwitted.

The teeth of realists having been broken open, the filusters were slowly trickled down, and before they fairly realized they were beaten, a second ballot was reached, this time with less than a round of bullets in the air.
The filusters, representing the day's work of the convention, after they were completed all were glad enough to adjourn until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Behind this spectacular entertainment, the three candidates for governor worked as beavers. Today it was Goebel against the filusters, and the Kenton county leader, cold and nervous as ever, has successfully defined his opponents to combine and beat him. He has done it, and the filusters they have shown themselves woefully lacking in ability to throw their vote in the face of the filusters.

Chairman Eats Chicken.

They took up the plan with a readiness that surprised the filusters. The straw was telling upon them. Just as an agreement was about reached, Rehob, a Goebel lieutenant, rushed into the hall and, with a flourish, presented a chicken to the chairman.

"We object to an adjournment," said Rehob. "This thing must be fought out here."

The filusters pulled themselves together for a test of endurance, for chairman Redwine had a big package in front of him, which he had drawn from a piece of fried chicken, refusing to entertain a motion to "lay
it off."

The filusters continued without interruption until after 5 o'clock when the Goebel men hit upon the plan to call for a roll call of the delegates.
This set their frenzied opponents beside themselves with anger, but the chairman called for the roll call, increasing all the while.

County chairmen came to the stage and the clerk had to lean over to very close range and shout the names of the chairmen. The filusters, however, refused to be counted, and the roll call was abandoned.

By agreement between the candidates the convention then adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

PAYNE AS CHAIRMAN.

Report Circulated That He Is to Succeed
Mark Hanna.

Chicago, June 26.—A special to the Record from Milwaukee, Wis., says that a prominent Republican of this city who is a close friend of Henry C. Payne, is authoritative in the statement that assuming the chairmanship of the Republican national committee, succeeding Mark Hanna, would be a serious matter, while
Mr. Payne, both personally and in that body and is vice chairman of the executive committee, is a man of great influence and is being strongly tempted to accept the chairmanship of the national committee.

It is being strongly tempted to accept the chairmanship of the national committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

"there seems to be a general disposition to sing. Why not let us sing together. Let us sing 'Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow.'"

A wave of laughter swept through the hall, and then all caught up the strain and the hymn was sung, amid surroundings that made it sound weird and uncanny, not indicative of peace and good will as its mission.

Music Would Not Soothe.

But sacred music never had a less soothing influence.

It gave way to the old chorus of disorder, and another attempt to start the roll call was howled down.

At this juncture a delegate rushed toward the stage, immediately in front of the chairman stood a line of blue-coats. The excited delegate began to denounce the police, the chairman and thence generally. An officer laid his hands on the disturber's shoulder. The convention arose as one man and a dangerous movement to the front of the house began. Every delegate was on his feet and wildly excited. This restless noisy mass surged forward, pushing the police and the chairman toward the stage. The police, seeing crowding them against the stage, resolved to use force. The police, seeing crowding them against the stage, resolved to use force.

The police who had been stoically listening to all sorts of denunciation for hours, evidently took the matter seriously. They saw the danger, and pulled their revolvers. His intention probably was to protect Chairman Redwine, who had made his way to the stage and to the rescue of the chairman. The crowd did not catch sight of the weapon or the convention might have developed what has been momentarily described for nearly a century as a fight. The cause of the disturbance removed, comparative silence that was not deathlike was restored. One delegate, however, remained on the stage.

Try Patriotic Aids.

"My Country, 'Tis of Thee," began the crowd, and for five minutes the convention took part in an admirable rendition of the national anthem. The music had even less quieting influence than religious.

"My Old Kentucky Home" followed, and the crowd, now more personal and more excited, sang the song with "Hail Redwine on a sour apple tree," they chanted.

Meanwhile the chairman reclined in his chair, his elbow on the table, and with his head resting in his hand, fangling himself complacently.

The dinner hour was long past, the chorus of shouting and singing, and oratory was waning, when a long-headed gentleman of color, with a big bag of sandwiches came on the scene.
The chairman, who had been sitting with eagerness. This infused enough life into the assembly to cause a renewal of the farce. To allow vocal music to be a round of bullets in the air, started, with "A Hot Time" as the theme.

The first signs of impatience, rapping the table sharply, he said, impudently:
"Gentlemen, how long is this thing going to last?"

"Until we get a vote" came the response like a Kansas cyclone and the crowd surged up. "We Won't Go Home Until We Get a Vote."

At 1:45 a delegation came forward with a proposition to adjourn. John B.
Thompson and John S. Rhea, Stone county chairmen, and John S. Rhea, respected Hardin, had for several days been standing together on chairs immediately in front of the chairman, directing the filustering.

Chairman Eats Chicken.

They took up the plan with a readiness that surprised the filusters. The
straw was telling upon them. Just as
an agreement was about reached,
Rehob, a Goebel lieutenant, rushed
into the hall and, with a flourish, presented a chicken to the chairman.

"We object to an adjournment," said Rehob. "This thing must be fought out
here."

The filusters pulled themselves together for a test of endurance, for
chairman Redwine had a big package
in front of him, which he had drawn
from a piece of fried chicken, refusing to entertain a motion to "lay
it off."

The filusters continued without in-
terruption until after 5 o'clock when
the Goebel men hit upon the plan to
call for a roll call of the delegates.
This set their frenzied opponents
beside themselves with anger, but the
chairman called for the roll call, increasing all the while.

County chairmen came to the stage
and the clerk had to lean over to very
close range and shout the names of the
chairmen. The filusters, however, refused to be counted, and the roll call
was abandoned.

By agreement between the candidates
the convention then adjourned until 10
o'clock tomorrow morning.

PAYNE AS CHAIRMAN.

Report Circulated That He Is to Succeed
Mark Hanna.

Chicago, June 26.—A special to the Record from Milwaukee, Wis., says that
a prominent Republican of this city who
is a close friend of Henry C. Payne, is
authoritative in the statement that assuming the chairmanship of the Republican national committee, succeeding Mark Hanna, would be a serious matter, while
Mr. Payne, both personally and in that
body and is vice chairman of the executive committee, is a man of great influence and is being strongly tempted to
accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

It is being strongly tempted to ac-
cept the chairmanship of the national
committee, and is being strongly tempted
to accept the chairmanship of the national
committee.

ed upon the innocent filusters, he has a right to say that I am for McKinley.
If General Alger is informed that Mc-Kinley is opposed to trusts and to legislation which fosters, creates and encourages them, and in favor of legislation to restrict and suppress them, then I am closer to the opinions of McKinley than has generally been believed.

"General Alger is assured that President McKinley is not in touch and sympathy with the disreputable political methods of Mark Hanna and his friends and disreputable such leadership then and for McKinley."

"The question of whether I favor Mc-Kinley is of no consequence in this situation. I am for McKinley in everything he does which I consider right, and I am against everything he does which I consider wrong."

GERMANY WILL NOT COME IN

STILL HOLDS OUT AT THE PEACE CONFERENCE.

Will Not Agree Not to Increase Her Military Effectiveness—Private Property At Sea.

The Hague, June 26.—The first committee examined today the Russian proposals relating to military effectiveness and budgets. Colonel Gross Von Schwar